

THE AUSTRALASIAN COLLEGE OF DERMATOLOGISTS

Historical College Awards

The Australasian College of Dermatologists was established in 1967 as the medical college responsible for the training and professional development of medical practitioners in the speciality of dermatology.

The College awards have been established to recognise the outstanding work and commitment of its Fellows to the specialty of dermatology. The document acknowledges the recipients of past College awards.

ACD ASM Prize

The ACD awarded funding for the best presentation at the Annual Scientific Meeting. The award continued the legacy of Dr Fred Bauer who was a Fellow of the ACD, who donated funds for a suite of awards. He had a specific interest in research, particularly in immunology.

The ACD ASM Prize was awarded to members of College, associated medical graduates, non-medical graduates and visiting dermatologists and was selected by the AJD Editorial Committee.

F C FLORANCE BEQUEST

Dr F.C. Florance was one of Sydney's early dermatologists and a founder of the College, who believed that dermatologists should benefit from overseas dermatological training and exposure to expand their practice. He helped ex-servicemen establish their dermatological practices upon returning from WW2.

The Florance Family bequeathed to College a donation which enabled the establishment of the Florance Bequest, which since 1987 has facilitated approx. 75 Fellows to undertake an approved course of study overseas. The Family has kindly supported College in the redirection of these funds to align with College's Investment Strategy to support larger scale strategic research and innovation in the future.

College continues to honour Dr Florance's name and vision with a new award established for Fellows.
