

6TH

THE AUSTRALASIAN COLLEGE
OF DERMATOLOGISTS

RURAL DERMATOLOGY
MEETING
2019

RANGE

THE 2019 AUSTRALASIAN COLLEGE OF DERMATOLOGISTS RURAL DERMATOLOGY MEETING WILL BE HELD IN ORANGE, NEW SOUTH WALES FROM 6TH TO 8TH SEPTEMBER.

ORANGE IS FAMOUS FOR ITS COLD CLIMATE WINES AND CLOSE TO THE FAMOUS PARKES TELESCOPE (THE DISH). ORANGE HAS MUCH TO OFFER FOR BOTH YOU AND YOUR FAMILY. WHERE ELSE CAN YOU SEARCH FOR TRUFFLES AND FOSSICK FOR GOLD?

SAVE THE DATE

WE INVITE ALL COLLEGE MEMBERS TO JOIN US FOR THE RURAL DERMATOLOGY MEETING. HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

- Keynote presentations
- Case discussions
- Addressing rural workforce issues
- Experiences of rural and remote dermatologists and other medical specialists
- Fine dining
- Social activities, including wine tasting.

Abstracts are now open and being accepted until March 2019. All abstracts will be considered for posters if not accepted as part of the program.

Further information registration, accommodation and the program will be circulated in due course.

To submit your abstract or for further details, please contact Roshan Riddell on roshan@dermcoll.edu.au or 02 8741 4150.

RECOMMENDED ACCOMMODATION OPTIONS:

De Russie Boutique Hotel
Beautiful boutique hotel with breakfast provided daily.

Mecure
Newly renovated hotel.

Hotel Canobolas
Newly renovated rooms.

Buses will be organised to and from the conference venue from the above accommodation options.

Flights are now available from Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane direct to Orange. Information on tours and activities that can be offered to delegates and partners to discover Orange and surrounding areas to come.

DINNER VENUE:

Zona
Beautiful renovated heritage house in the centre of town.

COCKTAIL PARTY:

Racine
Authentic shed on a vineyard.

